April 9, 1964

TODD present. OGHIVISOV and CURTIS absent. (S)(u)

April 10, 1964

KREISINGER absent. Part of 1964 vacation. (S)(u)

April 11, 1964

OGHIVISOV and CURTIS present. OGHIVISOV told KREISINGER that he had visited the office of Select Magazines, Inc., in New York where he failed to induce the firm to show him how its subscription department operates. (S)(u)

April 14, 1964

CURTIS absent. (S)(u)

April 15, 1964

CURTIS present. TODD absent. HENLEY working at the Raynes plant. OGHIVISOV requested KREISINGER to learn where a directory listing college book stores could be obtained. KREISINGER succeeded. OGHIVISOV intends to use the mentioned directory as a means to write letters and induce these book shops to sell the magazine. A 50% discount will be offered. (S)(u)

April 16, 1964

TODD and CURTIS present. (S)(u)

OGHIVISOV appears to be making a well planned effort to increase the circulation of the magazine. Does not divulge very much. Has told KREISINGER several times "I will tell you later." Has said he intends to visit the office of the American News Company in New York. (S)(u)

~~SECRET~~

KREISINGER has been told several times that his assistant, Mrs. TAMARA ZOROVA, is a medical doctor. This is rather strange as her memory is poor. (S)(u)

* * *

Although OGNIVTSOV has adopted the plan of sending three more issues to all persons whose subscription had expired, he has not as yet ordered any letters printed to be sent to these subscribers inducing them to renew. (S)(u)

It appears as if OGNIVTSOV intends to add the number of magazines sent to expired subscribers to the regular list of current subscribers, thus "padding" the current list to make it appear much larger. (S)(u)

Magazine subscriber: LEO A. POULIOT
RA 36884114 Sp-5 (E-5)
13150 Findlay Street
Detroit 5, Michigan (S)(u)

The informant furnished the following information orally to SA KATIR: (u)

OGNIVTSOV has not extended another invitation to the source to travel to New York and view a large subscription department to obtain ideas on how to handle subscriptions for the "USSR" magazine. Source noted OGNIVTSOV left on Monday for N.Y. (S)(u)

According to OGNIVTSOV, NICHOLAS V. KARPOVICH was scheduled to return from Moscow to the United States on 4/17/64. (S)(u)

OGNIVTSOV has mentioned he plans to take the source to New York and visit the American News Company, the former distributor of the "USSR" magazine. The source was of the opinion that the American News Company is no longer in the distribution business. Source believed OGNIVTSOV contacted the American News Company when he last visited New York City and that this company has a large subscription department, which OGNIVTSOV (S)(u) will visit and attempt to get some ideas on how to handle the subscriptions to the magazine. Evidently Select Magazines, Inc., kept putting OGNIVISOV's request off regarding his touring their Subscription Department and OGNIVISOV has reached the point where he has given up. (S)(u)

OGNIVISOV has mentioned that he discovered Select Magazines is "gypping" them, but he did not elaborate on this point. OGNIVISOV stated that when the new contract for the distribution of the magazine is written up, it will be different and eliminate any chance of the Soviets being cheated. (S)(u)

In regard to the entry in the source's report dated April 15, 1964, stating that OGNIVISOV would offer a 50% discount to the college book stores, the source advised this is not unusual as they give libraries and subscription agencies a 50% discount. (S)(u)

The source advised he knew nothing regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD other than what he had read in the magazines and newspapers. Source said he has heard nothing at the Soviet Press Department concerning this individual. (S)(u)

The source made available two letters received at the Soviet Press Department, which are set forth below: (S)(u)

"April 2nd. 1964

X "USSR Illustrated Monthly.
Washington D.C. (S)(u)

"Greetings:

"Thank you for the prompt reply to my letter to you of March 28th. but I never received an answer to the inclosed copy I mailed to you Feb. 21st. (S)(u)

"I want to renew my subscription now for at least 3 years. How much is it ? (S)(u)

"Please send me the copies as mentioned on the card. inclose find 10 3 cent stamps (S)(u)

"Yours truly

"Gentlemen:

"I have been a subscriber to your USSR since March 1960 and am not misled by the Propaganda by our Multi-millionaires and crooked politicians about the Russian people. (S)(u)

"Will you let me know why the Magazine 'Ameryka' is published in the U.S. and not in Russia, like your USSR is published here in the U.S. I understand that the U.S. did publish 'Ameryka' in Russia at the start? (S)(u)

"Yours truly, (S)(u)

In addition to the above letters, source made available a brochure entitled "Lenart Aircraft Corporation, P.O. Box 74, Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A.; Builders of All Metal Military and Commercial Airplanes." This brochure contained the date 1959, written in ink. (S)(u)

The source also made available a copy or copies of the following: (S)(u)

2 copies of "Current Soviet Documents" (CSD),
Volume II, No. 14, dated 4/5/64.

2 copies of CSD, Volume II, No. 15, dated 4/13/64.

1 copy of "USSR" magazine, 5/64 issue.

1 copy of "Message from Jewish Religious Leaders in USSR," No. 5, dated 4/3/64 (Consisted of 1 page).
